

Luna Shamsuddoha

1954-2021

Luna Shamsuddoha, Chairman of Dohatec New Media. She established Dohatec New Media in 1992, as the first international software vendor from Bangladesh. Dohatec CA a Certifying Authority issues Digital Certificates and offers PKI tools and enablement solutions. She secured Masters in International Relations from University of Dhaka and started teaching at Institute of Modern Language, Dhaka University.

She delivered solutions to revered institutions in the US. For over two decades she has been selling her products developed by her Bangladesh engineers from Dhaka to the most demanding markets.

She received international awards for Software from SIMSA, Switzerland in 2005

The World Development Report, World Development Indicators, Global Monitoring Report would be on her software for over a decade.

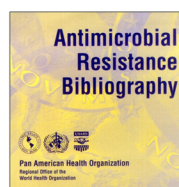

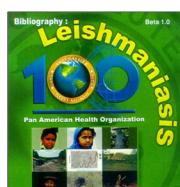

As a leader she has a wide portfolio of engagements where she has successfully mobilized and reached considerable heights. She has deep understanding of trade in regional and international arena. She has publications and she spoke at the US Government organized: "Indo-Asia Connectivity for Shared Prosperity, Trade Facilitation: Progress and Challenges," in India in December 2016.

She has been a Panelist in the UN with Ministers from Canada and Sweden at UNCDF, UN Women and UNDP - Economic Empowerment & Entrepreneurship, 2015, UN Headquarters, New York.

Many software solutions for PAHO and PAHEF have been provided by her over two decades for North and South America. She provided solutions for USPS and a host of institutions and corporations in Washington DC.

Her company has worked in development of Bangladesh e-GP portal as the Nominated Sub Consultant and developed procurement MIS. They developed the solution for Social Safety Net transfers.

She provided multi-biometric Voter Registration Solution for Bangladesh Army 2007-8.

She developed Electronic Government Procurement (e-GP) System for Royal Government of Bhutan. It was launched by the Hon'ble Prime Minister Tshering Tobgay on 21 June 2017.

She developed a Big Data analytics Platform with a Silicon Valley firm. She has a strong IT security capacity. She has membership in exclusive international associations for specialist sectors based on her technical capacity. These memberships are achieved by select few firms worldwide.

Luna found Bangladesh Women in Technology, (BWIT), a forum to empower women through Technology and encourage women and girls in ICT entrepreneurship and to study; pursue careers in technology.

She is a Member of Council of Global Thought-leader on Inclusive Growth, in Switzerland and Global Role Model, Empowering Women IT Entrepreneurs Program Microsoft and Trestle Foundation.

Hon'ble Arancha González, Executive Director of UN ITC consulted her on inclusion of women in public procurement issues.

Luna Shamsuddoha participated in the APC/CT- ESCAP Women ICT Frontier Initiative (WIFI) launch following extensive contribution in Korea.

She served on the Boards of Janata Bank; Agrani Bank; SME Foundation; UCEP and Independent University Bangladesh. She is in the Board of CAMPE and Bangladesh Business Magazine. She is currently the Chairman of Janata Bank Limited.

She received the "Leadership Award 2013" of Global Women Inventors & Innovators Network Award in Sweden.

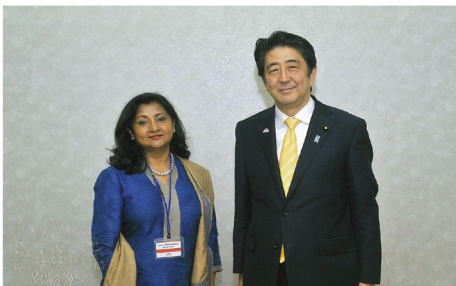

Femina World Women Leadership – Women Super Achiever Award 2017 India;
World Women Leadership Congress and Awards, 2015, Mumbai, India.

She is presently the "Outstanding Women in Business" – the DHL Daily Star Award; Bangladesh Mahila Parishad Award 2016 , Ananya Best 10 Award 2013 .

Luna Shamsuddoha was recognized at the Microsoft World Partners Conference in Denver, Colorado in 2007

Prime Minister Shinzo Abe Receives Courtesy Call by Luna Shamsuddoha at World Assembly for Women:WAW! It was an assembly of some leading women of the world. She was interviewed by NHK.

Election Commissioners from around the world are shown the voter enrollment solution at specialist events.

